

CONVERSATION STARTERS

Pre-K

Screen time can be fun, but we also need to play a lot of other games and play with our friends. Which board game or outside game is your favorite?

Elementary

Last time we watched YouTube videos together I noticed some really mean comments. How do you think that makes others feel?

Jr. High

Do you realize when you post something online you open yourself up to both positive and negative comments. How would you feel if you receive a negative comment?

High School

Social media allows everyone to see everything. If you saw a group of your friends together in a picture without you how would you feel?

College

Sometimes people self-sabotage their online reputation when they post inappropriate content which can affect a job or potential career. Have you ever posted anything that you wouldn't want your boss to see? How will you protect yourself?
